

DOMENICO PIMPINELLA

Vice Chairman

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITY

49 years old, a law graduate from Luiss Guido Carli in Rome, he has been Director General of the Enpam Foundation since January 2016.

Prior to having held the position of Chief of Cabinet and Deputy Director General at the Enpam Foundation, he was Executive Director of the Auditorium Parco della Musica in Rome and held management positions in various public and private organisations such as Sipra (today Rai Pubblicità, as Assistant to the President), Palaexpo (as Head of Legal Affairs, Secretary of the Board of Directors and Acting Director of the Scuderie del Quirinale), Aeroporti di Roma (as Head of Legal Staff Coordination) and Agenzia Romana per la preparazione del Giubileo (as Head of General Affairs). From 2005–2007, he was head secretary of the Lazio Region's Department for Economic Development, Research, Innovation and Tourism.

He has gained experience in corporate governance as a member or secretary of several boards of directors. Currently Deputy Chairman of Banca Akros and Board Member of Fondo Italiano di Investimento SGR S.p.A.

He has carried out academic activities as an adjunct professor at the Faculty of Economics of the University of Cassino, where he held courses in "Cost Analysis and Accounting" and "Planning and Control" for more than 10 years, and as a lecturer in various courses and masters' degrees at the La Sapienza and Tor Vergata Universities.